Acibadem

Acibadem was founded in 1991 as a small district hospital, Acibadem has become a renowned global brand, operating in five countries: Turkey, North Macedonia, Bulgaria, the Netherlands, and Serbia, with 24 hospitals, 15 medical centers, and nearly 25,000 employees. As a pioneer in healthcare ecosystems, Acibadem offers comprehensive services across all areas of health, supported by companies like Acibadem Mobile Health, APlus, Acibadem Project Management, Acibadem Labmed, Acibadem Technology, Acibadem Sports, and Acibadem University. In health tourism, Acibadem is Turkey's largest service exporter, ranking first in the HIB Awards for eight consecutive years. Through its Health Point offices in 61 locations across 33 countries, it brings over 50,000 foreign patients to Turkey annually.

Today, with 3,400 specialist doctors and 5,000 nurses, Acibadem delivers advanced healthcare services worldwide.

Acibadem's growth accelerated after partnering with IHH Healthcare Berhad in 2012, a global leader operating 83 hospitals in 10 countries. IHH, backed by Khazanah, Mitsui & Co., Ltd., and the Aydinlar Family, is the world's second-largest healthcare chain, with investments in healthcare, education, and real estate.
